

SPECIE

Whether fine art, jewellery, precious metals or gold bullion.
Effective insurance coverage is so important.

EC3's Specie division, based in London, places expertise, delivery and customer service at the top of its priorities.

With over 20 years industry experience we handle all levels of client from retail outlets of jewellery through to manufacturers and refineries. Transporting gold bullion to exotic cars or from selling fine art to exhibitions.

The very diverse activities from a bullion trader to retail outlet requires different coverage and different conditions which is why we pride ourselves on creating bespoke policies and wordings that make sure the client is always covered correctly for their day to day exposures.

With genuine local knowledge of the territories we operate within our clients can be comforted in knowing we not only understand the class in depth, but, the territory, the exposures and the cultural differences which is why we can negotiate the most competitive terms with the correct coverage.

The EC3 Specie team deals with insurance intermediaries, wholesale brokers and cedants on a worldwide basis.
